

BRANDEIS NATIONAL COMMITTEE

LOS ANGELES CHAPTER

PRESENTS

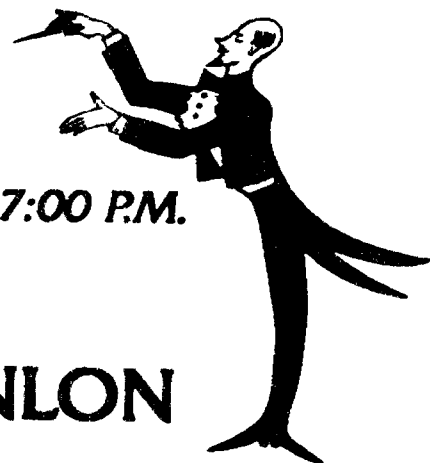

A SPECIAL EVENT

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2008 – 7:00 P.M.

AN EVENING WITH

MAESTRO JAMES CONLON

MUSIC DIRECTOR, LOS ANGELES OPERA

One of the worlds preeminent conductors, Maestro Conlon has conducted virtually every prestigious symphony orchestra in the US and Europe. For 15 years, one of his passions has been discovering composers who were silenced by the Holocaust, simply because they were Jewish. This musical heritage is now referred to as "Recovered Voices". Joining Maestro Conlon, in conversation, will be Dr. Michael Hackett, Professor of Theatre at UCLA.
